ORGANISED BY:

DEPARTMENT FOR CULTURE AND EDUCATION
COUNCIL OF ARANDA DE DUERO (SPAIN)

INTRODUCTION

The Department for Culture and Education of the Council of Aranda de Duero is pleased to announce the 17th edition of the International Band Competition 'Villa de Aranda' 2016.

The International Band Competition 'Villa de Aranda' was founded in 2000, having achieved international prestige ever since.

More than one hundred of bands selected, coming from different parts of Spain and the neighbouring countries, and more than three hundred and fifteen competitors: these facts show the interest aroused by this Competition.

The International Band Competition 'Villa de Aranda' is regulated by the following Rules:

1. APPLICANTS

1.1. Any Band, either national or international, may take part in this Competition.

1.2. The Competition will take place every Friday of July (1, 8, 15, 22, 29) and August (5, 19) 2016; only one Band per day.

1.3. The maximal number of playing bands will be of 7. In case of receiving a bigger number of applicants, the Organising Committee will determinate, using its own judgement, which bands will take part in the Competition.

1.4. Each Band will have a minimum of 50 and a maximum of 75 contestants, excluding the conductor.

1.5. Bands are required to bring their own music stands and instruments.

2. CONCERTS

2.1. Concerts will start at 10 p.m.

2.2. Each Band is committed to be present in advance at the competition place on the day of its performance, (from 7 to 7.30 p.m. for Stage set-up).

2.3. The Concert, composed by pieces of free choice and two compulsory pieces, must be one hour long at the most. The Concert will be timed by the Jury. Any Band exceeding the set-up time will be penalised.

The concert will be divided into two parts (First Part and Second Part), including a 10 minute interval.

2.4. The protocol will be determined by the Council of Aranda de Duero. Despite that, other elements can be added to the concerts to achieve bigger dynamism and vitality on the Audience. In order to do that, this must be communicated to the Department for Culture and Education and the Organizing Committee at least one month in advance before the beginning of the Competition, and their authorization is required.

2.5. Compulsory pieces shall be played in the following order: the first piece during the First Part of the concert, and the following piece, during the Second Part. Pieces of free choice may be played in the desired order.

2.6. Out of competition, the Band may attend the wishes of the audience with an extra piece, which will considered out of the contest time. In order to prevent any discrimination, the non-observance of this rule will imply the disqualification of the Conductor.

3. COMPULSORY PIECES

3.1. The Organizing Committee of the Competition has chosen the following pieces as compulsory:

FIRST PART:

Name: BOND...JAMES BOND

Arranged: STEPHEN BULLA

Publisher: Hal Leonard Concert Band Series

SECOND PART:

Name: KATIUSKA 1ª FANTASÍA

Composer: PABLO SOROZÁBAL

Publisher: Banda Rivera

The Competition organized by Aranda de Duero City Council will not be responsible for the music scores used by the participant bands during their concerts.

4. PIECES OF FREE CHOICE

4.1. The Bands participating in the Competition are to choose the pieces they wish to play, as long as they fit in one hour of music, including the two compulsory pieces.

4.2. Once the application is accepted, the participating bands of the 17th International Band Competition ‘Villa de Aranda’ shall send a list of the selection of pieces of free choice (specifying their name, composer and playing length) in the order they are to be played, as well as three properly bound copies of the conductor’s score.

4.3. The members of the Jury will appreciate the variety of genres and styles of the pieces of free choice: original pieces for bands, pasodobles, zarzuelas, soundtracks, marches, etc.

4.4. Please note that the Jury will penalise the lack of instruments or voices reflected on the music scores, but not played during the concert. For example: harp, piano, choir, etc.

5. FORMAL REGISTRATION

5.1. Registration to participate in the 17th International Band Competition “Villa de Aranda” can be submitted from the day after the publication of these Regulations on the Aranda de Duero City Council’s notice board until February 19th 2016.

5.2. Bands interested to participate in this Competition may submit their application by fulfilling every section of the official request attached to this information leaflet. The registration form must be sent as a certified letter to:

- a) Group name and short curriculum vitae of the Band and its Conductor, not longer than one A4 paper each.

In order to achieve a correct and fair analysis of the merits, it is required to present a certified copy (attested by authorities or any relevant organisation) of the Band prizes and the Conductor's qualifications.

- b) Two recent photographs, one of the Band, and another one of the Conductor.

- c) Recent DVD of any concert of the Band or properly edited rehearsal.

5.4. The selection among all applications will be carried away by the Competition Organizing Committee by March 18th 2016; the selected Bands will be then sent a written notification of the date of their performance and the account number of Aranda de Duero City Council, where they must pay a deposit of 450.- €, as a guarantee of their participation in the Competition, and which will be returned in a maximum of one month starting from the Competition's end. The Deposit will be returned to the bank account held by the Band, that should be properly stated on the Application.

5.5. The bands selected to participate in this 17th International Band Competition "Villa de Aranda" shall then proceed to the payment of the Deposit and to send the proof of payment, the list of pieces of free choice (with their name and composer), the playing order and three bound copies of Conductor's Score, on a certified letter by April 15th 2016. Otherwise, they might be replaced by another Band.

Once admitted, the bands will lose their Deposit in case of non-show.

February 19th: APPLICATION

March 18th: SELECTION

April 15th: DELIVERY OF THE DEPOSIT'S PROOF OF PAYMENT AND PIECES OF FREE CHOICE

6. JURY AND PRIZES

6.1. The Jury of Experts will be appointed by the Department for Culture and Education of Aranda de Duero City Council, at the Organizing Committee's proposal. There will also be a Popular Jury, whose members will cast their votes in writing, ensuring only one vote per person.

6.2. The members of the Jury will qualify the Bands with marks from 0 to 10 for each of the following aspects, according to the following percentages:

- Compulsory pieces – 40%.
- Other pieces – 45%.
- General impression – 10%.
- Popular jury's qualification – 5%.

6.3. The decision of the Jury will be unappealable; if the minimum quality level is not reached, prizes may remain unawarded.

6.4. In case of an extraordinary artistic level of the participants during the Competition, the Jury of Experts is entitled to establish as many honourable mentions (with no economic reward) as they find convenient.

6.5. Prizes are:

- First Prize – worth 4.000.- € and a trophy of the Town Council.
- Second Prize – worth 2,400.- € and a trophy of the Town Council.
- Especial Prize for Best Conductor – worth 800.- € and trophy of the Town Council.

Prizes will be awarded during the Local Feast Week of Aranda de Duero (September 9th to 18th 2016).

6.6. The amount of the prizes will be paid to the winners as soon as the relevant taxes have been deducted according to the current legislation.
